INNOVATION will be the key theme at this year's Western Sydney Manufacturing Week event held from May 28 to June 1. Then Small Business Minister David Campbell, who visited Lindsay Pie Making Equipment in Emu Plains last month, said the week-long event was a highlight of the manufacturing calendar in Australia. "Nearly 1000 people attended last year and we're expecting even more interest this year," he said.

A Leader's Forum will be held on the opening day at Sydney Olympic Park hosted by the Greater Western Sydney Economic Development Board.

Penrith State Labor MP

Karyn Paluzzano said Lindsay Pie Making Equipment was one of Western Sydney's most successful manufacturers. For more information on Western Sydney Manufacturing Week and registration details, phone 8843 1100 or go to www.smallbiz.nsw.gov.au/westernsydney.
